WASHINGTON CITY, February 12, 1844.

DEAR SIR: I have the honor to inform you that I have this day transmitted to the Governor of Virginia my resignation of the seat in the House of Representatives to which I was elected for the 28th Congress.

In apprizing you of this fact, in order that you may provide, in all respects appertaining to your office, for the resignation of a member of the body over which you preside, please permit me to add an expression of the ardent attachment which I feel, and shall ever cherish, towards that House of Congress in which I have so long served a beloved constituency; of the tenderest regard for its own honor, and for its usefulness to the whole country; of gratitude for the kindness I have received from its members and officers, and of the deep regret with which I bid each and all of them an affectionate farewell.

And, sir, with the highest respect and esteem, I am your obedient servant,

HENRY A. WISE.

Hon. JOHN W. JONES,

Speaker of the House of Representatives.
